"SENIORS OF '52'"

With lifted heads we make our way
Toward the bright tomorrow,
Though our hearts are filled with joy
There's still a touch of sorrow.
Sorrow for our parting
From friends so fond and true
Sorrow for our leaving
All the things we used to do.

We'll miss our band, our ball, and plays
And all the fun we had.
Dances, studies, convos, all,
Even the teachers we thought were bad.
Now we go to join the alumni
Who left in years before us,
To sing the praises of our school
In an everlasting chorus.

With the scene located in the deep South, the plot of this operetta rotates about Colonel Jackson's opposition to the love affair between his grand-daughter June and Bill Fuller, a Yankee. A second romance, between Dick Grant and Nancy Fuller, adds flavor to the plot. Much humor is added by the antics of Beauregard, a negro servant, and Dr. D. Dribbenport Thrush, an eccentric scientist. After June almost marries the wrong man, due to a case of mistaken identity, the error is discovered, and the play ends happily with a double marriage between Bill Fuller and June, and Dick and Nancy.

Under Mr. Horn's direction for the second year, the band has grown in size and quality. Always willing to co-operate with the public, they did their best whenever called upon.

They marched at the American Legion Jamboree and led the Halloween parade. At the second annual high school Band Day at Indiana University, they marched between halves of the Indiana-Pittsburg's football game.

They marched and played at all home basketball games. They played at Farmers' Institute and are making plans to play in the Spring Festival.

Because of Aunt Emily's opposition to their marriage, Harvey and Mary had eloped. Trying to reconcile Aunt Mary, Mary had written letters telling how rich they were, even though they were of limited means. When Aunt Emmy decides to visit them, Mary has to fix a scheme to save face.

She hires a maid from the employment agency and borrows furnishings from Sylvia, her next door neighbor, but the butler is more of a problem. When the

For their play, the class of '51 chose "The Tangled Yarn", a comedy in three acts. Camilla, Vivian, and Cora share an apartment in a poor boarding house. When they are down to their last penny, Alex, a magazine editor, informs them that Camilla has won a $5,000 prize offered by his magazine for the "mother of the year". Camilla had borrowed a costume from Sadie, another boarder and sent in a first man from the agency turns out to be Limpy Lannigan, a crook, Mary decides to have Harvey, whom Aunt Emmy has never seen, pose as the butler. Jerry, a quick witted stranger, poses as Mary's husband.

Although he is a good four flusher, Jerry is no match for Mary and soon has them both in hot water. After Harvey is mistaken for Limpy Lannigan and Baby Willie is handed out the window, Mary is forced to call a halt to her wild plot.

Additional comedy and satire is added by Stella, the maid, and Officer Shea, a likeable cop.

Desperate for the money, Camilla continues the masquerade until a series of complications force her to confess. Speed Martin, a newspaper reporter, arrives to check the story; Sadie takes her costume back; Joshua Page enters and announces himself as Camilla's husband; and another roomer, Mrs. Morrison, demands an investigation.

The play ends as Camilla falls in love with Alex; Cora, with Speed Martin; Vivian wins Stuart Brand; and Sadie recognizes Joshua as her long lost husband.

'PELIER

Jim Rinker, "Hairy", moved up from the second team. Jim could play forward or guard. Only a junior, he will be available for the Pacers next year. He was a very capable reserve and could be counted on to do his best when sent into a ball game.

Harold Everhart, "Yo". Everhart's set shots kept us in many ball games. He is a good ballhandler and playmaker. This 5' 8" guard can still contribute much to the Pacers, because Harold is only a junior.

Harold Love moved up from the second team. Harold added much strength to the Pacers. This junior guard saw a lot of action in the latter half of the season. He started several games for the Pacers.

Vincent Morris, "Long John". Vincent made the last year the best year. He was the pillar of Pacer bankboard strength and a heavy scorer. He played equally well at forward or guard.

Coach Ernest Sutton "Ernie". A first year man with the Pacers, Ernie made the Varsity. He compiled a winning record with both the second team and the Varsity. Ernie is a graduate of Ball State. He likes a Branch McCracken style of basketball. He was a reserve in the Marines and was called to duty in March. He was succeeded as coach by Hugh Thimlar.

Rex Bell, "Bubbles". The Pacers were weakened greatly when Rex would foul out of ball games. He was a great aid on the bankboards and could be counted on to score heavily. This is the last year for this high scoring senior forward.

PACERS

Ralph Needler, "Cheetah". This junior forward was moved up from the second team. He added much to the reserve strength of the Pacers.

Walter Jackson, "Herble". He started off slowly but gained momentum as the season progressed. "Herble" played a good game whether at forward or center. He has another year as a Pacer ahead of him.

Robert Smith, "Bob". This dependable forward saw a lot of action as a reserve. Bob started several games and could always count on rebounds and points. Another senior, Bob will leave a vacancy to be filled next year.

Orves Ramseyer, "Professor". This was Orves' first year on the Varsity. He saw most of his action as guard but could play any position. He was awarded the trophy for sportsmanship at the Four-Team Tourney. As he is a senior, he will be greatly missed next year.

Charles Wilson, "Charlie". Wilson is the little boy of the team. Only 5' 4", he is a very good ball handler and can move well on defense. As he is a junior, this guard will be back next year.

Bob Ford, "Googie", student manager. This was Bob's first year as manager of the Pacers. He added much to keeping up the morale of the team. It was his job to polish balls, distribute socks, and have towels ready for the team.

Dear Alumni Members,

We're off for another gruelling marathon of a school year. The first few days for the underclassmen were spent in getting the whereabouts of the classrooms and lockers. Looking at us behind the teachers' desks as we went to our classes were three new teachers and a lot of old standbys. Changing of the rooms caused much commotion, as the music room was moved to Room M on first floor; Mr. Matson's class was assigned the old music room, and his former room became the art room.

Living up to the slogan, "The work must go on", Miss Albertson organized the Crier Staff and started them writing school news. On September 24 an assembly program was held by De Costo and Ferrari, during which many people rubbed their eyes and wondered if last night they had had too hard a night. Mr. De Costo played three clarinets at once, two saxophones, and other combinations that proved very interesting. Miss Ferrari accompanied him on the accordion as well as played the ocarinas with him.

On September 27 and 28 everybody was slicked up for the never-tiring cry of, "Watch the birdie!" Have you guessed it yet? Yes, you're right; the photographer was here snapping pictures.

On the night of the 28th the Annual Staff sponsored the Hoosierettes, who put on a very interesting program.

Good-by for now,
Tommy Coleman

P.S. During September our baseball team played four games, breaking even at two wins and two losses. They defeated Dunkirk 5 to 4, and Roll 2 to 1, but were defeated by Redkey 6 to 2 and Bern 10 to 11.

Montpelier High School
October 31, 1951

Dear Alumni,

The baseball team lost its only game of the month, Monday October 1, to Geneva 6 to 4.

On October 5 a balcony meeting was held to open the Annual drive, and that afternoon the all-school convocation was held. The first chapel meeting of the year was held on Tuesday, October 9, with Rev. Humerickhouse in charge.

Saturday, October 8, the band went to Indiana University, where they saw a football game and, at the half, marched and played along with several other bands from this state. Excitement about the basketball team had been aroused since the naming of the team.

On Friday, October 12, all energetic people who wanted to be yell leader had their chance, as the try outs were held. On Friday night, October 19, the operetta, "Love Goes South", was put on by the Music Department. On Wednesday, October 24, the first class convocation was held. The Seventh Grade put on a play, "The Soft-Hearted Ghost".

The Teachers' Convention was held Thursday and Friday, October 26 and 27. Students had a much-needed rest, while the teachers slaved (?) on. That seems to be all the dope for October.

So long for now,
Tommy Coleman

Annual Office
November 30, 1951

Dear Alumni,

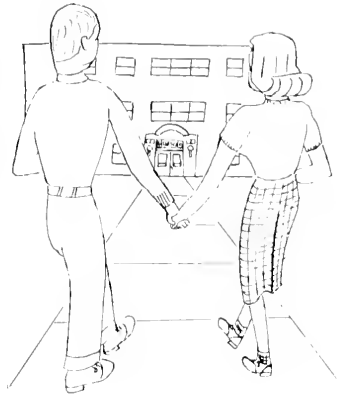

The first Student Council Dance was held on November 7. Much excitement was shown by the Juniors on Thursday, November 8, because of the arrival of their class rings. It seems that some of the boys have lost or mislaid theirs. I wonder where they are?

On November 13 we had our second chapel program with Rev. Bayless in charge. On November 14 we were honored to have a trio from Holland, who played a musical saw, an accordion, and a guitar, and gave many vocal selections.

On Friday, November 16, the Freshman Class put on a very interesting convocation. On Wednesday, November 21, after a surprise convocation put on by part of the Freshmen and grades Seven and Eight, we were dismissed the rest of the week for Thanksgiving. The Seniors put on a variety show, Friday, November 30 as their convocation.

Loads of luck,
Tommy Coleman

P.S. Six basketball games were played in November with Lancaster and Fairmont handing us defeats. We were victorious over Warren, Geneva, Petroleum and Dunkirk.

December 21, 1951

Dear Alumni,

About this time every year everyone is hurrying around seemingly in a hurry to go some place. But the real cause is that Christmas is in the air, and everyone is excited or busy practicing on the program.

On December 4, we again had chapel with Rev. Bright in charge. On December 7, the traditional yell brick was at stake, and when the yelling had subsided, the Juniors won the yell brick. December 8, the 4-team tourney was again staged at Montpelier. Roll and Montpelier won the afternoon games, and Roll won the final from Montpelier. On December 14, we traveled to Hartford City, but 'twas all in vain. We lost the ball game by a small margin.

We thought we would have a white Christmas because of the great amount of snow that descended upon us. Because of weather conditions, we were out of school from December 17 to 19 and were forced to postpone the Ridgeville game to a date in February. We returned to school on Thursday, December 20, in time for one day of classes and a Christmas program on Friday forenoon. We were then dismissed for a vacation until Wednesday, January 2.

Merry Christmas,
Tommy Coleman

Dear Alumni Members,

Now that we had ushered in the New Year safely, we were ready to come back to school on Wednesday, January 2. On Tuesday, January 8, we had another chapel program with Rev. Rankin. On Friday, January 11, the "Crier" staff distributed their bulletin, for which the students had waited eagerly. On January 18, the first semester came to an end, and everybody was busy taking exams.

We ended the first semester successfully by defeating Roll and having the Victory Ball returned to Montpelier. On Friday, January 25, the Eighth Grade put on an interesting convocation, a minstrel show in which the whole class took part. On the same night our basketball team defeated a cagey Portland team. On January 30, Chester became the third basketball victim of our team in this month.

Well, this is about all I can say for January except that its been a cold month.

So long,
Tommy

Annual Office
February 18, 1952

Dear Alumni,

On Tuesday night, February 5, another win was added to our string, the victim being Pennville. On Wednesday, February 6, the monthly Student Council dance was held and was a square dance. On Thursday, February 7, the annual Farmer's Institute was held, and in the evening a supper was held commemorating the birthday of Scouting. On Friday, February 8, the local American Legion oratorical contest was held, and Lyle Towns was judged the winner.

On Tuesday, February 12, the United Societies of Zoological Assemblies presented a collection of animals from all parts of the world before the high school. They had monkeys and baboons, rare and colorful birds, and North American wild animals. It was a very interesting program.

On Tuesday, February 12, the monthly chapel service was held with the Rev. Westervelt in charge. On Friday, February 15, a gymnastic team from Ball State presented an exhibition to us in preparation to their entering a contest later in the month. In the evening our final home game was played with Berne our victims.

The tournament fever has started to increase, and everyone is giving his prediction on who the tournament champs will be. On Thursday, February 19, the drawing of sectional tickets was held and the winners were announced. On Friday, February 22, the juniors put on their convocation which was in form of a musical program. In the evening, our team fought a hard battle with the Bryant Owls. The Owls have proved themselves stumbling blocks for many bigger teams.

On Wednesday, February 27, the Ra Von Dramatic Club put on three one-act plays in the high school auditorium. They were very well presented and also very interesting. On Thursday, February 28, the sectional is to start at Hartford City. The Pacers are going to be strong contenders for the title and are bound to be in top form for the Sectional. Good luck, Pacers.

See you later,
Tommy

March 28, 1952

After the return to school the sophomores had their last party on March 28.

So long for now,
Tommy Coleman

April 1, 1952

On Tuesday, April 1, there will be a Student Council dance. On Friday, April 4, the clubs will meet, and in the evening the Junior Class will put on their annual class play. The Band will enter a contest at Hartford on April 5, and the Ra Von Club will present "Sparkin'" at Ball State Speech Arts Festival. On Tuesday, April 8, the monthly chapel program will be held.

SENIOR HISTORY

On September 4, 1946, fifty-four bashful students set out on the first of a series of four long journeys. Jean Keagle withdrew but soon joined us again along with three others: Mary Beth Dossett, Harry Slentz, and Martha Teegarden.

Our sponsors were Miss Rea and Mr. Funderburg.

We presented our convocation on March 18.

Leading us this year was Dolores Ledbetter with Donald Ford right behind her. The money handler and bookkeeper was Sally Millard, while we took our troubles to Betty Besser and Carl Bantz.

For our second journey there were fifty-three travelers. Mary Ann Graves and Jack Powell withdrew.

Our president was Lyle Towns; vice-president, Carl Bantz; secretary-treasurer, Glenn Goodspeed; and advisers, Waunita Shiner and Diamond Cook. Our sponsors were Mrs. Nunn and Mr. Brinkerhoff.

We had a gym party December 7, and our convocation on April 14.

The third journey was more exciting for us forty-eight experienced travelers. We had two new ones; Donna Rumbaugh and Melinda Ball from Hartford City. We lost Donzella Schuller shortly after the first semester.

Leading this year was Virginia Futrell with Lyle Towns only a split second behind. Carl Bantz handled the money, and Donna Rumbaugh and Vincent Morris listened to our troubles.

During this year we sponsored magazine sales and took turns selling refreshments at the home ball games. For our convocation we presented the play "Boomerang" on January 26. On April 6 we presented our class play, "Her Step Husband", under the supervision of Miss Nelson and Mr. Wilson.

We put on the Junior-Senior banquet for the outgoing Senior Class on May 18. Our theme was "Scardust". We had a lot of fun decorating the gym and were proud of it after we were through.

The fourth and final journey began on September 4, 1951, with forty-four very anxious travelers. We were unhappy when Martha Ford, Clara Mae Grisell, and Naomi Bennett withdrew.

To lead us this year we choose Glenn Goodspeed with Carl Bantz following right behind. The money handler and bookkeeper was Helen Wall and the girls, and boys took their troubles to Martha Ford and Vincent Morris, respectively. Sharon Wright was elected to the Athletic Board. After Martha Ford withdrew, Audrey Risinger took her place.

To help raise money for the Annual, we sponsored the "Hoosierettes", a radio group made up largely of former M. H. S. musicians.

We presented our convocation on November 30. It was a talent show featuring over half the class.

For our class flower we chose the white rose. Our class colors are rose and silver. Our motto is "Onward Is Our Aim."

Our class play, "Forever Albert", was presented on May 2. Senior exams were on May 16, and that evening the Junior-Senior banquet was held to honor us. Honor day was on May 19. Baccalaureate was on May 18, and we were graduated on May 22. Our commencement speaker was J. R. Mitchell.

The class of 1952 now joins the ranks of the Alumni Association.

THE CLASS OF '52.

TEN YEARS HENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith, the former Sally Millard, were sitting viewing TV one evening with the twins, Jack and Jill, awaiting their guests for their anniversary dinner. Suddenly there appeared on the screen the up-and-coming dance team of Melinda Ball and Donnie Kesler, who were appearing on the famous TV program, "Droop and Drag with Johnson's Rag" with Maestro Maynard accompanied by fumble-fingered Martha Voght.

Just as the commercial, advertising Gene King's Southern Rose Filling Station came on, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Burchard, the former Joan Futrell, came to see how the Smith twins were, as Jerry had taken them up in his airplane the week-end before.

Just as they came in, Mr. and Mrs. William Fennig, the former Georgie Russell, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Carter, the former Dorothy Downing, drove up.

Georgie told Sally that Mr. and Mrs. Richard Love, the former Audrey Risinger, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bantz, the former Virginia Futrell at Millgrove.

Sally said that she had intended to have Sharon Wright at the dinner that evening, but Sharon had gone on her honeymoon to the Gordon and King Honeymoon Hotel, owned by Minnie Gordon and Stella King. She was slightly delayed for her trip because her chauffeur, Rex Bell, was detained by his Hair Grower Manufacturing Company.

Just then the conversation was interrupted by the appearance on TV of the world famous basketball team, the "Sloppy Shooters," with Bob Smith, Dick Hawk, Vincent Morris, Jim Luzadder, and Orves Ramseyer, coached by the renowned Glenn Goodspeed. This would be Orves' last season, as he would soon be going to darkest Africa to marry his guide, Black Jezabel. The yell leaders for the team are Helen Wall, Sue Smith, and Waunita Shiner.

Then came the commercial with the famous Toni twins, Bonnie and Tommie Coleman.

Jerry remarked that Martha Shannon, on her trip to Chicago to get supplies for her Boston store in Van Wert, Ohio, had dinner at the Fuller-Pulley Restaurant, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Keith Fuller, the former Betty Murphy, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Pulley, the former Gail Garrett, with Lyle Towns, who was going to Fairbanks, Alaska.

Dorothy said that Sharron Townsend had recently married Bill Towne, and they were spending their honeymoon in Roll.

Georgie said that she had seen Mr. and Mrs. Dave Pearson, the former Dolores Ledbetter, going into the Jim Davis Drive-In, managed by Mrs. Harold Love, the former Martha Teegarden. They were waited on by Sedonna Newman, the best car hop, who would soon go to Washington as a filibusterer.

Sally said that Jill told her that Mrs. John Cheesman, the former Donna Rumbaugh, her Sunday School teacher, had said that the week-end before, Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Brown, the former Donna Lou Helm, and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Osborne, the former Dorothy Garrison, had visited the Robert Ramseyers' Old-Age Home to see their former sponsors, Miss Albertson and Mr. Morgan.

The gathering broke up late that night after a pleasant evening of discussing their old classmates, but not too late to keep Mr. and Mrs. Carter from being given a ticket by the alert traffic cop, Donnie Ford.
